- 👉 To encourage the voters to participate in the democracy by enrolling themselves in the Electoral Rolls and voting at the time of Election

3. The Context:

India is the largest democracy in the world. Voter awareness should be a continuous process instead of a one off exercise. Voting is very important in a democracy because it is a way for people to have a say in their government and to elect officials who represent their interests. For strong and healthy democracy, voter and voters are very play the vital role. It is also a way for people to hold their government accountable. Voting allows people to have a voice in the decisions that affect their lives.

Besides that, voting is important because it sends a message to our elected officials that we care about what happens in our country and that we are paying attention to the issues that matter to us. When large numbers of people don't vote, it sends the message that we are complacent and that they can get away with anything. To become healthy and strong democracy, voter awareness campaigns is important. By keeping this view in Mind College starting the voter awareness campaigns programmes.
